SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you will be on supervised release for a term of :

3 years as to each count, to run concurrently.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2.  You must make restitution in accordance with sections 3663 and 3663A, or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
3. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
4. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
5.  You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6.  You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in which you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)

DEFENDANT: SCOTT HOWARD JENKINS
CASE NUMBER: DVAW323CR000011-001

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity.
9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
12. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. For further information regarding these conditions, see Overview of Probation and Supervised Release Conditions, available at: www.uscourts.gov.

All property constituting or derived from proceeds the defendant obtained directly or indirectly as the result of such violations;

B. Based upon the Special Verdict returned by the Jury, the defendant shall forfeit the following property:

	Asset ID No.	Item Description
(1)	23-FBI-002063	$10,000.00 from Bank Account # XXXXX8133 in the name of Scott Jenkins for Sheriff at Blue Ridge Bank, Culpeper, VA

C. The United States is authorized to seize the forfeited property whether held by the defendant or by a third party and shall:

(1) pursuant to 21 U.S.C. § 853(n) publish notice of this Order, thereby giving notice of the United States' intent to dispose of the property in such manner as the Attorney General may direct and notice that any person, other than the defendant, having or claiming a legal interest in any of the above-listed forfeited property must file a petition with the court within thirty days of the final publication of notice or of receipt of actual notice, whichever is earlier, and shall file the original petition with the U.S. District Court Clerk's Office, Charlottesville Division, 255 W. Main Street, Room 304, Charlottesville, VA 22902 and shall certify a copy of said petition to the U.S. Attorney's Office, Asset Forfeiture Section, P.O. Box 1709, Roanoke, VA 24008. This notice shall state that the petition shall be for a hearing to adjudicate the validity of the petitioner's alleged interest in the property, shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury, and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title, or interest in each of the forfeited properties and any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim and the relief sought;

(2) to the extent practicable, provide direct written notice to any person known to have alleged an interest in the property that is the subject of the Order of Forfeiture, as a substitute for published notice as to those persons so notified;

D. The United States, at its discretion, shall be accompanied by federal, state, or local law enforcement officers to assist in the execution of this Order. Upon application by the United States, the Court shall issue any order necessary to effectuate and prevent the frustration of this Order pursuant to the All Writs Act, 28 U.S.C. § 1651(a).

E. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 32.2(c)(1)(B), discovery may be conducted in accordance with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure to the extent necessary or desirable to resolve factual issues.

F. The United States shall have clear title to the subject property following the Court's disposition of all third-party interests, or, if none, following the expiration of the period provided in 21 U.S.C. § 853(n)(2) for the filing of third-party petitions.

G. The Court shall retain jurisdiction to enforce this Order, and to amend it as necessary, pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 32.2(e).

H. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 32.2(b)(4), this Order of Forfeiture shall become final as to the defendant at sentencing and shall be made a part of the sentence and included in the judgment.
